Message from Miss Blackburn

A bit of a cold week this week but thank you for your patience and understanding. Christmas is approaching rapidly so make sure you have those dates in your diaries for the performances, Christmas dinners, Nysgerrig Winter Celebration etc. We are all looking forward to a very festive few weeks.

Thank you so much to those who attended the parent meetings this week and to those who have offered to volunteer to prepare the forest for learning after Christmas. If you would like to volunteer but haven't yet then please do get in touch with either me, Miss Burns or Mrs Knight, whether it's a day, an hour or plank of wood, it's all very much appreciated and will benefit your child in the long run.

Thank you so much to FROGS for organising the Christmas fair and to all of you for your generous contributions

Have a lovely weekend

Paula Blackburn

PLEASE CAN WE ASK THAT YOU LEAVE THE DISABLED PARKING BAY

Christmas Lunch

On 13th December we will be having our whole school Christmas lunch. Traditionally most children take part in this. For this meal lunches will need to be ordered by emailing secretary.germoe@fbgschools.co.uk by 11am on Tuesday 5th December. Payments are made via school money as usual.

For our Christmas Lunch menu, please see the next page.

GODREVV CLASS UPDATE

This week in Godrevv Class we have been very busy. We've had our dress rehearsal, and our Christmas play has been getting better by the second! We are really excited to perform it next week and you should be excited too- don't forget to book your tickets. It is guaranteed to be a night of fun, laughter and joy.

On Monday, we took part in some sports leader training, we practiced running some games and learnt how to be safe. We learnt about PACE, which stands for Participants, Area, Communicating and Equipment.

Yesterday we also enjoyed a visit from Susan, who works with the food bank. She helped us act out a story about how the food bank works, happily she then collected our donations which we made last half term and has now taken them to the foodbank.

Today we are excited because it is the Christmas Fayre and we are turning our classroom a gaming grotto!
